POLICE RESERVES READY

Officials Claim but 2,000 of 11,000 Men Have Quit.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Traction officials asserted today that the strike called last night on the subway and elevated lines on the Interborough Rapid Transit company and on the surface lines of the New York Railways company would speedily collapse. They based this claim on the fact that the motormen and signalmen on the underground and "L" lines had remained loyal to their employers.

"Practically none of the motormen on either the subway or 'L' lines left their work," it was stated at traction headquarters. "If these skilled men stick, this fact in itself constitutes a victory for the company."

Reports of attacks on cars began to arrive at police headquarters during the morning.

At Clinton and Rivington streets a band of strike sympathizers stoned a northbound car, smashing the windows.

Police Inspector Cohen, who had charge of the police on strike duty, reported during the forenoon that normal service was being maintained on the subway and elevated, and that fully 30 per cent of the surface cars were running.

The power house, 21 sub-stations and 23 car barns of the roads were under police guard, and during the first 12 hours of the strike no disorder occurred.

Inspector Cohen announced that 9,100 policemen were held on reserve. The police department established an automobile patrol of the city.

To protect the loyal motormen wire cages so constructed as to ward off all missiles but bullets, were placed in each motor car. Behind these barriers the motormen proceeded with their work.

Reporters of the International News Service investigated the situation on the various lines and found these conditions prevailing:

1.—On the subway all trains were running virtually on schedule time during the early morning "rush" hour.

2.—On the "L" lines conditions were practically the same. In some instances the crews consisted in part of strikebreakers, but all were in uniform.

3.—No attempt was made to run surface cars of the New York Railways company between midnight and 6 a. m. At the latter hour, however, cars were sent out from the barns and General Manager Henley claimed that practically normal service would be furnished during the day.

4.—Five thousand policemen, practically half of the city's force, were detailed to strike duty. An officer was stationed on every platform subway and elevated lines.

Before the strike is 12 hours old the carmen declare that a sympathetic strike would be called, if necessary, among the longshoremen who handle freight.

Estimates of the number of men on strike differed widely. The union leaders claimed that half of the Interborough employees were members of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, and would obey the strike order, but the traction officials asserted that not more than 2,000 of the 11,000 employees had joined the union.

General Manager Henley declared that 75 per cent of the men would abide by the individual contracts which they signed, and which the company refused to abrogate, this action resulting in the strike call.

Late in the forenoon the public service commission instituted an investigation of the causes of the strike. Organizer Fitzgerald agreed to state the union side, and President Theodore Shonts of the Interborough, announced he would be represented by Arthur Peacock of its legal department.

MOB RAZES CHURCH OF "HOLY ROLLERS"

GADSDEN, Ala., Sept. 7.—Enraged because of practices of a strange sect known as the "Holy Rollers," a mob of men and boys, armed with guns, axes and clubs raided the "church" of the order at Carlisle, a mining town in the mountains near here, drove the worshippers away and razed the buildings. The Holy Rollers claim to talk with God in "strange tongues." A year ago one of the "preachers" permitted a snake to bite him to demonstrate to a crowd that even a reptile could not harm one of God's chosen children. The snake sank its fangs into the man's arm. Twenty-four hours later the man was dead.

JIMMY IS OUT.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 7.—Governor Willis today accepted the resignation of James Boyle of Columbus, as a republican member of the state tax commission. The governor appointed as Boyle's successor State Budget Commissioner E. M. Fullington of Marysville. The appointment is effective at once. The position pays $5,000 a year. Boyle's resignation followed public charges that he was responsible for the actions of a number of county boards of revision in arbitrarily raising tax valuations without first presenting the affected taxpayers a hearing.

Daniels, Charged With Assaulting Mrs. Baber,
Brought Before Victim

Charles Daniels, the negro charged with assault on Mrs. Vivian Baber, was brought back to Lima for a few minutes last night and again spirited away. Daniels under guard of five deputies was taken to the city hospital at ten o'clock last night for the purpose of identification by Mrs. Baber. The accused negro was taken into the room of Mrs. Baber handcuffed to two other negroes. Present were the attending physicians, nurse, Prosecutor Barr, and court stenographer Walter N. Scott. The door of the room was closed and the results of the interview remain a mystery, which will probably not be disclosed until the trial of the case.

Officials admit that the negro was brought back at this time owing to the serious condition of Mrs. Baber. The patient suffered with a double fracture of the right jaw, and a fracture of the left jaw, while a fracture of the skull has made serious developments, and her condition is considered precarious.

The visit of the officers with the prisoner was well planned, and had been kept a secret, there being but two persons outside the officials and physician who had any knowledge of the plans.

A few minutes before ten o'clock the attending physicians arrived at the hospital and just as the clock struck 10 two touring cars with lights extinguished drove in from the rear of the hospital, and the party proceeded to a room across the hall from that of the assault victim. The three negroes were handcuffed together, Daniels being dressed in the clothes he wore when arrested, and one of the others in similar garb, while the third was dressed differently. The three negroes were of the same stature and size in general appearance.

Mrs. Baber is said to have withstood the ordeal last night with fortitude and did not become excited, the interview being so arranged and planned that excitement and confusion was entirely avoided.

The interview lasted but a few minutes, and the accused negro was taken quickly to the awaiting auto and rushed from the city. The destination and present whereabouts of Daniels remains a secret, although it is authentically reported that he was not returned to his last place of confinement. The deputies who brought Daniels here gave evidence of having made a long drive.

Just twenty minutes before the identification John Baber husband of the assault victim left the hospital, it being his custom to call every night and leave about 9:30 o'clock.

Prosecutor Barr and other officials of the party declined to discuss the results of the session and felt relieved that the visit made necessary by Mrs. Baber's condition, was successfully carried out and the prisoner again taken from the city.

Officials are making every effort to obtain all information possible, having been temporarily handicapped through the unfortunate demonstration of last week. However matters have settled down to normal and the present grand jury will undoubtedly have possession of the facts in the case.

HELD FOR SHOOTING.

MARION, O., Sept. 7.—Bernard Miller was held to the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter for shooting to death an alleged chicken thief, Thomas Keyes, a negro, formerly of Edwardsville, Ill. Keyes died, and Miller, reading of his death in the evening newspaper went to police headquarters. He was released on his own recognizance.

Charges Against 3
M. E. Ministers Are Heard By Committees

Investigation into the charges being made against Dr. J. D. Darling of Columbus, former State Sunday school secretary, against the Rev. Albert S. Bowersox of Western avenue church, Toledo, and against James Edge, former Lima pastor, charged with insubordination, continue by the committees appointed Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning for investigating closely into the same. The probable outcome will not be known until the report of the committee is submitted to the conference.

The committees are hearing testimony behind closed doors. Olivet church is the scene of two of these trials, at which the Rev. Mr. Darling and his action towards certain young girls with whom he came in contact while doing his work as secretary of the Ohio Sunday school association, is being scrutinized. Darling is on the scene to look after his rights.

Bowersox, who after being warned by his district superintendent, E. E. McCammon, not to enter his church to preach, sought an injunction and preached there. Claims are made that Bowersox acted indiscreetly with female members of his flock. He is not attending the conference, preferring to await the decision of the conference at his home in Toledo.

Bowersox and Darling may know their fate before the night session of the conference is over.

Edge, who refused to take a small pastorate at Westville, to which he was assigned from Lima, is not present at the conference. He is said to care little what disposition is made of his case. While in Lima he was most successful at Second Street church.

Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield opened the Thursday morning session of the West Ohio conference this morning by a discussion of "The Ministry of Divine Fellowship, Practicing the Presence of God." This was but one of the half hour's talks the bishop is giving each morning at the opening of the conference. In his plain way, Bishop Thirkield told of the means of grace to be found in this worship. On Friday morning at this half hour

Fifteen Arrests As Result of Opening of Investigation
Into Lima Riot

INDICTED MEN NOW IN JAIL

Twelve Deputies Engaged In Making
Arrests; Grand Jury
Makes Rapid Progress

BAIL TO BE $1,500.

Bail will be fixed at $1,500 for the 15 accused men. The hearing will probably be held before the end of the week.

The penalty for the crime of assaulting an officer for the purpose of lynching is from 1 to 15 years, indeterminate sentence.

Swift action by Prosecutor Ortho O. Barr and the Allen county Grand Jury has resulted in the indictment, last night and this morning, one week after the riot of August 30, of practically all of the ring-leaders involved in the attempt to lynch Charles Daniels, and the subsequent near-lynching of Sheriff Sherman E. Eley.

All morning Deputy Sheriff F. M. Watt and twelve others deputized for the task were busy arresting men indicted at last night's session of the grand jury. At present all are in the county jail pending hearing. The men arrested are:

MILTON H. SPYKER, 230½ North Central avenue, grocery and feed store.
GEORGE SAXBY, 147 South Main street, hat dealer.
ADDISON S. HOOKER, 123 North Pierce street, saloon keeper.
RALPH W. HOOKER, 214 South Main street, saloon keeper.
BURT MYERS, 111 East Spring street, barber.
THOMAS FINN, 725 East Vine street.
EDDIE HALL, driver for Graham Ice Cream company.
GILBERT FOX, 1200 Atlantic avenue, laborer.
CABBY STEINBAUGH, Lima brewery employee.
AUGUSTUS DE CAMP, 348 East North street, driver for the Moulton Lumber company.
DOYLE S. DUFF, Weadlock avenue, cigar maker.
AGNUS DENSMORE, Kemp, section hand.
IRWIN ZERKLE, Kemp, farmer.
ARTHUR C. SHAPPELL, 678½ South Main street, auto salesman.
JOHN B. LONG, 1107 East North street, laborer.

Additional arrests are expected momentarily. It is known that the list of secret indictments returned by the grand jury in the partial report is to prove an extensive one, but the first bunch of arrests was made today to prevent the possibility of escape in any case.

The men now in the county jail are in some cases well known characters in Lima. Spyker and Saxby were formerly in the liquor business. Ad Hooker runs a saloon at Main and Eureka streets, his brother at Main and Elm.

Most of the men implicated were arrested this morning, with little or no trouble in any case. The deputies worked in pairs and were prepared to put a stop to any show of resistance. Every man was immediately thrown into the county jail to await the hearing, when bail will be fixed by the court.

None of the prisoners attempted to make trouble on reaching the jail. A few set up the usual protests which accompany every arrest, but no attention was paid to them. In the presence of Sheriff Eley, however, a couple of the apprehended men became silent at once rather than incur the further wrath of the man who held them in charge.

"Nobody got very anxious to show off or be sassy," said Eley later. "I anticipated that when we caught some of these fellows there would be a little trouble, at least some threats when they saw the inside of the house a second time, but they are all quiet. They have to be."

Eley added that he was not inclined to listen to the advice of many friends who urged him to "get even" with his assailants of a week ago. "Whatever the court does with them suits me," he said, "and I'm not going to show any partiality of discrimination. They all get the same treatment."

Twelve of the men were arrested this morning, but Gilbert Fox, already in under a 10 days' sentence for petit larceny, was merely served with notice of re-arrest.

The personnel of the list of accused men is taken by many to indicate that the "farmer" story, a rumor to the effect that Shawnee township farmers had marched into Lima to avenge Mrs. Baber, was merely a "blind" to throw public suspicion off the track. It was not commonly accepted at the time, however, the majority believing that the trouble was made by residents in the city.

That Prosecutor Ortho O. Barr would utilize the whitewash brush, letting the investigation slide as a part of his campaign for re-election, was another "grapevine" of unaccountable origin, evidently set afloat for ulterior motives. That myth has also been exploded by the swift action of the grand jury and the fact

GREEKS JOIN ALLIES IN ATTACK UPON BULGARIAN FOES

Rumanians Are Expelled
From Turtukai by Germans, Russians Admit.

British Hold Ground Gained on West Front on the Somme.

ATHENS, Sept. 7.—Greek troops stationed at Saloniki have joined the allies and will fight with the Anglo-French troops against the Bulgarians. The eleventh division, commanded by General Zimbrankis, was the first to align itself with the entente. Shortly afterward smaller forces commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Convelis and Major Tsakalopoulos also joined the allies.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 7.—The evacuation of Turtukai (Tutukan) by the Rumanians was officially admitted today. The war office issued this statement:

"Under pressure of German and Bulgarian forces, the Rumanians have evacuated Turtukai."

LONDON, Sept. 7.—An attempt was made by the Germans to re-take Leuze wood, on the Somme front, from the British last night, but the attack was beaten off, says an official statement issued by the war office today.

The Germans were forced back to their own lines leaving 19 prisoners, two officers and 17 men, in the hands of the British.

Leuze wood, which was captured from the Germans on Wednesday, is one-half of a mile northwest of Comblès.

Fighting continues around Ginchy where the Germans are holding on with great tenacity.

The official report reads as follows:

"Under cover of darkness the enemy counter attacked at Leuze wood. After hand to hand fighting the Germans were driven back, leaving two officers and 17 men in our hands. Fighting at Ginchy continues. There was considerable artillery duelling during the night and morning, the enemy using gas and tear shells."

"East of St. Vaast in the Neuville sector the enemy exploded numerous bombs."

AT THE BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE, Sept. 7.—The British feel that their uphill work in the offensive is over with the exception of taking Ginchy. For more than two months now their fight has been one to gain high ground over a broad and commanding front.

The capture of Guillemont placed the British in possession of the last of the old second line trenches and now, from the Somme to Thiepval the Germans have been blasted out of their old positions.

"This is not the only point in our favor," said a British staff officer. "The Germans chose their ground when they built this line of fortifications which they considered, by their own admissions, to be invulnerable. When the British smashed through the Germans said we were in a sack. So we were in one sense. But we had to make an opening in that solid line of defense a start in our plans. We knew that the hardest work would come at the great main attack. This has been so far accomplished that now it is the Germans who are in a sack."

"If we should prefer to end the offensive and wait for spring when we have a quadruple number of guns and so much ammunition that we shall have to keep up daily a battle of guns on quadruple length of the present front, we will still have the biggest day in this summer's offensive in order to consume the supplies arriving daily across the channel, who our present position of artillery and infantry advantage on the Somme front is a settled trench warfare simply is that we could kill a German for every Briton killed by the Germans. This was the first step. What the Germans are to be only the commanders of the allied army know."

He Was Worried and Hopeless.

MARRIED AT FINDLAY
On Wednesday afternoon, September 6th, at the United Evangelical parsonage in Findlay, Mr. Benjamin Kistler of Findlay and Miss Mary A. Conner of Cridersville, Auglaize county, were united in marriage by Rev. Elmer Bailly.

Could Not Do Her Cooking.
Mrs. E. E. Hartmeister, Tea, Mo., writes: "I was affected with kidney trouble for two years. I got so bad this summer I could hardly do my cooking. I got Foley Kidney Pills and I feel like a new person." Too many women neglect symptoms of kidney derangement, weak back, swollen ankles and joints, aches, pains and rheumatism. H. F. university. It was also practically decided to include the Cincinnati Training school for missionaries in the list.

The episcopal fund allotted to the conference has been made up by the cabinet and will be apportioned among the district superintendents. It is expected the Northeast and Ohio conferences will also adopt the resolution to enter the campaign next fall to secure this large amount of money for Ohio's educational institutions of Methodism.

Ernest T. Chiles, William W. Holland, Alvin H. Manahan, Joel F. Pfeiffer, Stanley W. Wiant and Mr. Watkins made up a class which was up for elevation to elders. With the exception of Chiles, who will remain in fourth year's work, and Pfeiffer, who will also continue, the class was ordered raised to elders. Wiant is the son of a minister and comes from a family long prominent in Methodism. Bishop Thirkield took occasion to compliment him on his splendid grades and welcome him to the ministry.

The morning session closed with a strong address by C. M. McConnell of Lakeville, of "The Church and Country Life."

Retired Ministers Meet.
Rev. David Judson Starr, although not the eldest member of the conference, was the eldest minister present at the roll call at the opening of the session. Just sixty years ago Dr. Starr's ministry began and continued for fifty-three years, when in consideration of his long and faithful service, he was excused from the responsibilities of further pastoral work.

Dr. Starr has always been an active man in the ministry, and has had a wide experience in the pastorates in several cities and as district superintendent. Dr. Starr became widely known over the state by his service of nine years as chaplain of the Ohio penitentiary and chaplain of the house of representatives.

Having spent the last winter in Florida with great advantage to his health, Dr. Starr has instituted a plan to establish a winter home in Florida, for the benefit of retired ministers, who suffer from the extreme cold of northern winters, without much expense to themselves. Donations of land have been offered for this purpose, and Dr. Starr seeks to enlist persons of means in the building of suitable homes for these venerable men.

The Retired Ministers' association of the Methodist Episcopal church is a fraternal society, formed of retired ministers for the promotion of their comfort, welfare and usefulness. There are about ninety retired ministers in the West Ohio conference. An experience meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at Grace church at a quarter past four o'clock, at which the topic will be, "My Call to the Ministry." This meeting will follow the ordination services and all who wish to hear the experiences of these venerable ministers and their younger brethren are invited to attend.

At the annual meeting of the Retired Ministers' association, held this afternoon in Olivet Presbyterian church, Dr. Starr spoke on "Wesley's Personal Work in America."

Temperance Last Night.
The session last night was devoted to temperance and the work of the Anti-Saloon league. The Rev. Ernest Bailey Smith of Washington, D. C., was the speaker, using for his subject, "The Saloon and the Child."

Addresses were made by the Rev. Clarence True Wilson, E. J. Moore and C. L. Eldredge. The Rev. M. B. Fuller of Trinity church, presided at the meeting.

At the session yesterday afternoon, Dr. Norcross spoke on the "Home for the Aged" in Cincinnati. He was followed by the Rev. A. E. Harford of Worthington, superintendent of the Methodist Children's home. In the South Side Church of Christ, the Rev. D. H. Jemison spoke on "The Boy Problem from the Standpoint of the Christian Church."

Dr. F. Watson Hangan, speaking on "Is the Ministry a Failure?" yesterday afternoon, said that it was not. He said too many men entered it, not realizing the opportunities and needs. He laid these causes to the men themselves, their church, the district superintendents and colleges and universities.

He recently died and the con-ference voted yesterday to pass this name to Michael P. Zink, of Hills-boro, now 90 years of age, and the oldest in the conference. The Rev. Mr. Bail was 92 years at death.

Dr. George Wood Anderson, who organized Epworth Methodist church in Lima, afterward accomplishing great good in both the east and west in Methodist churches, but who has now taken up his residence in Bellefontaine, was yesterday trans-ferred to the West Ohio conference from the Wyoming conference. He will be made conference evangelist. Dr. Anderson has been engaged in tabernacle revival work.

There is not a word of complaint on the handling of the big crowds in the dining room for the luncheon and supper hour. The self-served plan is adequate and the gr at din-ing-room capacity in Grace church cares nicely for every one, who wishes to eat there. The meals are served, way below cost.

The Charles C. Siferd Company of South Main street, engaged in un-der-taking, ambulance and ch. r. ser-vice, made happy the gathering by the distribution of pretty fans. Many of these little summer-coolers were scattered over the church.

The Rev. E. D. Smith, who has served the church at Kalida the year, applied to the conference to be placed on the retired list the coming year.

THE "GOOD OLD DAYS" --AND THE NEW
The Republican nominee declared in a speech delivered in Los Angeles that the Republican party is the party of progress.
On other days, its advocates were wont from time to time to refer to it as the party of high moral ideas.
He would be a bold controversialist who would attempt to prove out Mr. Hughes' declaration.
A party of progress! Surely there's nothing in its history since the Lincolnian days to justify the claim.
It has ever since been the party of reaction, of retrogression.
Remember?
When public lands were abundant until they had been distributed by corporation-owned congresses to the railroad systems the represented?
Those good old days when a bunch of corporation directors would get together and water their sweet stocks up to abnormal proportions and demand freight and passenger tariffs to an extent necessary to make even the water precious?
Or else unload their next day upon a duped public?
When it was not illegal to wreck railroads and buy them in far below their real value?
When the corporations owned their judges and prosecuting attorneys?
When they named boards of aldermen for cities and legislatures for states?
When they elected their own lawyers to the senate of the United States to secure for themselves such laws or repeal as they needed in their operations?
When governors were made in secret conferences by corrupt bosses and forced upon states?
When subsidies were granted by legislatures with a lavishness that only a few understood and these could not prevent?
When regulation of railroads was defeated every time any attempt was made to enact it into statute?
When the lobby can riot in every capitol and county seat in the land? Glorious old Republican days!
When every contract of importance was the basis of graft and the

The Folly of Marrying a Man to Reform Him Told By Dorothy Dix

If He Won't Brace Up Because of His Self-respect, He Probably Won't Do It for Any One Else--and Besides, There Are Plenty of Good Men to be Had for the Catching.

(Reprinted by Request.)
MY DEAR MARIAN: You write me that you are thinking of marrying Dick. You call him "Poor Dick", and you admit that he is a dissipated ne'er-do-well, who has been nothing but a sorrow and disgrace to his family and who lets his poor old mother take in boarders to support him.
You say that no one has ever understood "Poor Dick", and that you feel perfectly sure that he only needs your influence to lift him up to the higher life, where he will never thirst for a highball again, or yearn to play poker, or be tempted by the flutter of another petticoat.
Oh, Marian, Marian, where is the fool-killer when a girl marries a man to reform him? Surely, there is no other place on earth where there is such need for the slayer of sweet little geese as when a gentle maiden tackles the job of making a man out of a bunch of appetites, and laziness, and selfishness!
It can't be done, my dear. Modern surgery has accomplished much, but it has never yet succeeded in putting a backbone into a creature as spineless as a fishing worm. In homely phrase, you can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear. When you marry you must take a man as he is--not marry him for something you think you can make of him.
There are no miracle workers in these days, my child. Still less is any wife a miracle worker. There is no conjure in the marriage ceremony that changes a sot into a leader of the Young Men's Temperance union, or makes a lazy man industrious, or that gives a weakling the strength to stand alone.
A Strong Wife Nursing a Weakling
Eaten through Life is a Repulsive Sight.
So, before you march to the altar look carefully at the man with whom you are contemplating taking that fatal journey, for he will be precisely the same individual before and after taking, with the same tastes, the same character, the same desires. He will not be metamorphosed into a fairy prince, but just be the same old Tom, Dick or Harry.
Before, however, you commit harikari--and I would earnestly recommend to any girl thinking of marrying a drunkard to take a dose of prussic acid or rough-on-rats instead--let me beg of you not to marry any man that you think of and speak of as "Poor Dick" or "Poor John". That phrase in itself is a confession of your recognition that he is a weakling, one who must be protected, instead of being the protector, one who is not able to take his part among men, one who must always be explained, apologized for, excused for his shortcomings.
Believe me, my dear, that there is no happiness for either party in such a marriage. You cannot subvert the order of nature and society with impunity. When the woman has to be the stalwart oak and the man becomes the clinging vine the spectacle is one at which the very gods laugh. No matter how much a woman loves a man to begin with, nor how sorry she is for him, when she sees him a pigmy among men and realizes that he cannot fight their battles nor run their race, she, too, comes to share in the world's contempt of him.
When the Creator made man of greater stature and stronger muscles than he did woman, he meant us to look up to our husbands and not down upon them. That's the way we were built, my dear, and the plans and specifications upon which a woman's heart was originally constructed have never been altered. The only happy homes are those in which you find the wife trailing along after the husband or walking hand in hand with him. You will never find either peace or contentment where the wife leads the way, and the husband holds on to her petticoat like a toddling child to its mother.
But, you will say, you do not expect "Poor Dick" to be always "Poor Dick". As soon as he has the benefit of your sustaining influence you expect him to become "Successful Dick", "Great Dick", "Rich Dick". Look about you, child. You have seen many women marry shiftless, drunken loafers. How many of them have you seen succeed in making these into prosperous and honored business or professional men?
A Woman Can Help or Hinder Her Husband, But She Can't Make Him.
Not one. The men who run the banks and big stores and manufacturing concerns; the men who are leading lawyers and doctors, and editors and preachers; the men who are elected to high office were not weaklings made by their wives. They were strong men who carved out their own fortunes. They do not owe their rise to any woman's influence. They got there by their own hustle and push.
There's just one job, my dear, that every man has got to do for himself, and that is to make his own character. A woman may scold at around the edges and embroider a blue forget-me-not in one corner, or she may wear it into a frazzle in a spot or two, but that's just about all she can do. Its as far as her influence goes. She can make her husband happy or miserable. She can help him to success more quickly or delay his getting there, but she can't

STREET ACCIDENTS CAUSE BIG DEATH TOLL EACH YEAR
It is curious how little attention is paid by health workers to the prevention of street accidents and the great number of deaths they cause every year in American cities.
According to statistics recently prepared by the police department the total number of street accidents in one year in New York City was 22,140, which resulted in 654 deaths.
Of the persons killed 519 were men and 149 women. One hundred and six children were under 6 years of age, and 184 were between the ages of 6 and 16.
In the non-fatal accidents the proportion of men and women was similar to that just noted. There were 2,361 children under 6 years and 5,985 between the ages of 6 and 16 years.
The causes were: Passenger autos 4,855, motor street cars 3,026, falls due to causes other than accidents caused by vehicles 3,605, horse-drawn vehicles, trucks or wagons 2,441, and collisions of all kinds 2,428. Other causes of accidents were comparatively small.
While the old popular idea was that racing automobiles or fire engines caused most street accidents a month's careful tabulation showed that there was only one ambulance accident to every 5,042 runs and one

No More Running Sores
Minor M. Keltner Sells An Ointment Called San Cura That is a Positive Relief.
It matters not how old, persistent or painful the sore is, San Cura Ointment the powerful antiseptic, will draw out the poison and promptly heal the sore.
So sure of this are the owners, the Thompson Medical Co., that they have authorized Minor M. Keltner to return the purchase price if San Cura Ointment doesn't do all this paper says it will do. No fairer offer was ever made.
B. D. Dutton, Titusville, Pa., says: "My arm was covered with twenty-four running sores and swollen to twice its natural size. San Cura Ointment relieved the pain, drew out the poison and healed the arm in an incredibly short time. It is the greatest compound for healing I ever used."
The healing powers of San Cura Ointment are little short of marvelous. It gives relief, and is guaranteed to help salt rheum, eczema, bleeding, itching or protruding piles, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, chapped hands and chilblains. In cuts, burns, scalds and bruises, it always cures and is healing. 25c and 50c a jar. By mail on receipt of price. If your druggist is out of it or does not keep it.

The Electrical Dealer Gets a New Prospect
"Good-morning, Mr. Benton. What may we do for you this morning?"
"Well, sir, I'd like to talk over this Electric Service proposition, Mr. Clay. Tell me something about the job of wiring, first of all."
"All right, what size house have you?"
"Seven-room."
"Well, I can't give you an exact estimate without looking over your place, but I can give a pretty close idea of what it'll be. We just finished a seven-room job last week for $28.50."
"How long did it take for the job, Mr. Clay?"
"Two and one-half days."
"I tell you what I'll do, Clay--I'll talk things over with Mrs. Benton this evening and let you know in a day or so."
"All right, Mr. Benton. Good-day."
We'll meet Mrs. Benton the next time. Watch for her.

THE VALUE OF PLAY

There is nothing like the joy of playing to keep the spirit young and the heart in tune with all the world. Not so long ago I was thinking of a woman whom I saw playing with her daughter, and the glow of her cheeks and the brightness of her eyes told me how happy she was. All from the play time she was enjoying with her daughter. That very afternoon I picked up the Monitor and I read in it a little article so much like the incident of which I was thinking that I will let you read it too.

"Mother and daughter came up the steps together, just as their caller had rung the bell. Both were laughing and merrily puffing with exertion, their hair blown into becoming looseness, and each swung a tennis racket gaily. The mother looked as happy as her 16-year-old daughter and her cheeks were as pink.

"Let's sit out here on the veranda and have some lemonade," said the mother, after greeting the caller. "We have just been over to the tennis court in the park and played a set. I won, too, and, as she glanced over at her vanquished daughter, she encountered a look of affectionate pride.

"Mother plays a stiff game," admitted the girl smiling. "She has only one in for it this summer, but already she can beat me."

"Yes, I discovered that I was forgetting how to play," remarked the mother. "My children were growing to regard me as a grave, sedate person, who looked on at their games but never entered into them. One day this daughter of mine was wailing because she had no one to play tennis with, and suddenly I wondered why it never seemed to occur to her to ask me. I realized that I was not a real companion for her, and then it occurred to me that I ought to bring out the freedom and joy of playing. I invited myself to learn tennis that day, and I've played every day this summer and enjoyed it hugely."

"And the daughter's fond, proud grin showed that she enjoyed it, too."

SYSTEM ALL RIGHT.

"I used to think I would know just how to manage my wife when I got her."

"Has your system proved to be a failure?"

"No; the system is all right, so far as I know. She has never let me try it."—Stray Stories.

To cultivate kindness is a great part of the business of life.—Johnson.

MRS. ALEXANDER T. MACDONELL was hostess to several hundred of her friends yesterday afternoon, commencing Mrs. Richard A. Heddens, of Los Angeles. Guests were received at the Elks club in two groups, at 2 and at 4 o'clock. Receiving with Mrs. Macdonnell were Mrs. Heddens, Mrs. William Steckle, Bloomfield, Iowa, and Mrs. Leo Parmely, Painesville, all long time friends of the hostess.

Gladoli and fernery were effectively used throughout the rooms, and an orchestra composed of Misses Marcella Plumb, Martha Plumb, Ruth June and Henry Plumb, Jr., furnished music during the afternoon. The Misses Mary Parmenter, Eva Hopper, Helen Woods, Hazel Wright, Clara Graham, Bessie Creps and Helen Longworth assisted with the programs and in seating the guests in the ball room where the delightful program was given. The personnel of the program was Mrs. Sibyl Sanderson Fagan, whistler, Springfield, Mr. Ralph Zerkle, pianist, Springfield, Miss Belinda Pearce, soloist, Urbana, Miss Margaret Moore, accompanist, Urbana. The delightfully pleasing program follows:

1—Spring, (Salter); The Night Has a Thousand Eyes, (Speaks); The Four Leaf Clover, (Coombs); Miss Belinda E. Pearce.

2—King Lear and Cordelia (Shakespeare); Tone Poem (Henry Parker); Miss Sibyl Sanderson Fagan.

3—Jerushy, (Gaynor); The Pine (Woodman); The Naughty Tulip, (Salter); If No One Ever Marries Me, (Lehman); Miss Belinda E. Pearce.

4—Abendteuer, (P. Scharwenka); Mr. Ralph Zerkle.

5—L'Ete Summer, (Cecile Chaminade); Miss Sibyl Sanderson Fagan.

6—Her Rose, (Coombs); Sylvell; Thoughts Have Wings, (Lehman); Miss Belinda E. Pearce.

7—Last Rose of Summer, (M. Gilinka); Happy Birds, (Edward Holtz); Miss Sibyl Sanderson Fagan.

Assisting the hostess throughout the afternoon were Mrs. W. L. Parmenter, Mrs. T. N. Cunningham, Mrs. Henry Deisel, Mrs. J. K. Bannister, Mrs. Ira Longworth, Mrs. F. Butters, Mrs. W. A. Campbell, and Mrs. A. A. Schiewe.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Cunningham, Ada; Mrs. Mann, Marion; Mrs. J. Welsh, Toledo; Mrs. Aiken, Bellefontaine; Mrs. Bowers, Muncie; Miss Helen MacDonald, Neodosh, Kan.; Miss MacDonald, Troy; Miss Buell, Waltham, Mass.; Miss Pearsons, Chicago; Mrs. William Parmely, Painesville; Mrs. William Steckle, Bloomfield, Iowa; Mrs. C. Hints for the Housewife

Some one is always getting a stain on their dress or spilling it on the fresh clean tablecloth. But, there isn't always a remedy for taking out the stain, although the housewife will find she will have more success than usual if she tries these preventive measures.

The first thing to do toward removing a spot is to find out, if possible, what caused the stain. If one does not know, one should test a tiny corner of the spot with various cleansers, choosing a place that is in an unnoticeable part of the garment, if possible. If the cause is plainest removers:

Grass Stains—Alcohol may be used when the material cannot be washed, or for white goods. When the color will stand it, dyed fabrics which have grass stains on them can be washed with strong ammonia and water, followed by a warm soap solution and careful rinsing.

Ink Stains—Where the composition of the ink is unknown, it is difficult to know what to use first. Sour milk, or several rinsings of sweet milk, may cause the spot to disappear. Then wash in warm water and soap to remove grease. If this is not successful, try a paste made of lemon juice, starch and salt, or finally Javelle water. Soak for a few minutes in Javelle water, wash. Repeat the process if necessary.

Rust Stains—On table linen, wet the spot and apply a few drops of hydrochloric acid solution and wash thoroughly. On colored or wool goods, if of good quality, special applications of citric acid solution, cold, will generally remove. Great care is required for colors.

Fruit Stains—Stretch the fabric, if white, over a bowl and pour boiling water from a height through the spot. On white wool or silk, lukewarm soap solution is sometimes effective, or boiling water while borax is brushed on. On colored garments, it is wise to consult a professional cleanser.

Grease Spots—Most grease spots can be easily removed with naphtha soap and lukewarm water. Chemical or dry cleaning will remove grease spots by dissolving the fat. The cleaning liquid may be ether, turpentine, or benzine—which must be used well away from flame or fire—or chloroform or carbon tetrachloride. On silks and satins, rub the spot with a thin paste made of benzine and carbonate of magnesia. The benzine evaporates and the magnesia will absorb the grease and can be brushed off. Dry French chalk or powdered magnesia, allowed to remain on the material for a while, will usually remove grease spots successfully. It may be necessary to brush off and repeat several times. On wool or cotton, remove grease spots by rubbing the spot several times with a sponge saturated with benzine. Use fresh benzine as each rub removes some of the fat; otherwise the fat will spread. A warm iron and blotting paper will remove some grease spots.

Daily Fashion Hint

This is a very attractive dress in navy taffeta, in which the serge and taffeta is set in particularly interesting. Especially notable is the snug fitted corse clusters of buttons. White or orange affords pleasing relief to the collar. White topped button boots and a smart black and white hat afford the finishing touches.

Amusements

THE FAUROT'S PICTURES.

Lionel Barrymore is the featured star at the Faurot today, appearing in "The Quitter," a Metro production of a story of the west. Mr. Barrymore is seen as "Happy Jack" Lewis, a role that gives this versatile artist opportunity for both humorous and dramatic portrayal. There are many scenes of exciting interest and photography that is extremely picturesque. The cast in Mr. Barrymore's support includes the charming and gifted Marguerite Skirvin, Paul Everett, Charles Prince, Edward Brennan and Julius D. Crowles. New Paramount Pictographs, with many timely and interesting subjects and a Metro comedy, "Ducks is Ducks," are also on the bill. The latter has the expert services of Max Figman and Lolita Robertson.

ORPHEUM

In keeping with the announced policy of giving the best array of vaudeville talent to be presented at popular prices, the Orpheum will offer a very high class vaudeville program for the last half of this week, starting with a matinee performance this afternoon at 2:30. The prices for the matinee remain the same as in the past, a slight raise in prices at night, in order to be able to offer Lima people something extraordinary in popular price shows. One special feature for the last three days will be that of Callahan and Callahan, Chas. and Bobbie, two well known Lima boys in a black face comedy act, all their friends will be desirous of seeing them. One big laughing feature is that of the Packard "4" in mirth, melody and torphisphere. A veritable riot of fun. Another well known vaudeville act is that of the Five Martells, who will present a very interesting and unique program. A great novelty on the bill is that of Hawaii's Famous Nude Truth Girl, vaudeville's newest dancing sensation. For variety on the program Miss Frances Benton and company, assisted by Richard Carroll in "Handkerchief No. 17," which act has been winning warm praise in all the larger Keith theatres throughout the country.

AT THE ROYAL

At the Royal today and tomorrow will be shown the great New York sensation "Soul Mates."

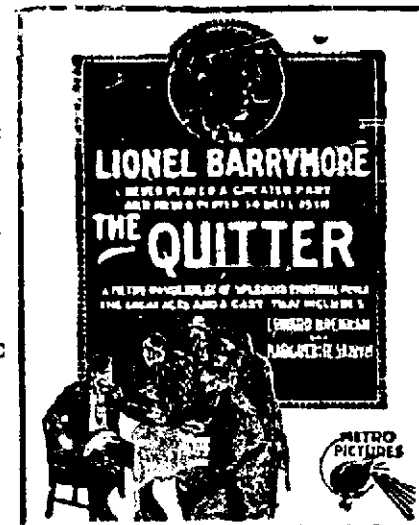

By means of a powerful and absorbing story the author of "Soul Mates" shows in a masterful manner that no line can be drawn between men and women when they are evil any more than they can be judged by different standards when they are good. The main character in this interesting drama consist of two married couples, both ill-mated, but with the man at fault in one instance and the woman at fault in the other. The eminent actor, William Russell, is cast as Lowell Sherman, the loyal husband of a weak woman, while the well known actress, Charlotte Burton, plays the roll of Muriel Carr, the good wife of a reprobate husband. Fearless, Carr is no longer interesting to Sherman's wife but his own wife is forced to share his poverty and Sherman's cup of woe is full to the brim when he learns that the little son he loves has also been affected by his revenge. It is at this point in the absorbing plot that Sherman becomes acquainted with the eminent actor, William Russell, an unusual and dramatic incident in his own wife's past and the drama ends with an extraordinary climax in which William Russell, supported by his splendid company, gives a remarkable exhibition of great emotional acting.

Lima Lucky on Gas

A Big Supply This Winter!

After going over the entire field, following the bringing in this summer of 25 new wells, Lima and this territory will have a plentiful supply of Natural Gas for the entire winter. Not until assured of this fact would the Lima Natural Gas company make the following announcement:

Note This Special Offer!

For many years past, it has been the custom of this company, each Fall, to offer its present and prospective patrons some special concession, in the cost of connecting premises or equipping appliances, which would permit them to arrange to enjoy the luxury of natural gas, at a substantial saving. The popular acceptance of our previous offers is evidenced in the hundreds of happy homes where this matchless fuel has supplanted coal and is now used with cleanliness, comfort and satisfaction.

This year it is our pleasure to announce that beginning September 1st, and ending October 1st, 1916, we offer for your acceptance the following proposal, to-wit:

For Domestic Heating and Cooking

Gas burners will be installed in coal-fired hot air furnaces, steam and hot water boilers, coal heating stoves, coal cooking stoves and grates, AT THE COST OF MATERIAL WITH NO CHARGE FOR LABOR.

Easy Terms if Desired

All installations will be made in the order of their receipt, first come first served; and as our fitters will naturally be very busy, it therefore behooves you to place your order WITHOUT DELAY, as October 1st is the final date.

East Football Predicts Many Future Wins

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The office boy ambled into the workshop, and said: "Guy outside wants to see yuh."

"Who is he?"

"Oh, should I know?" responded the junior hifeling. "I didn't ask him. I aint one of those nosy persons, I aint."

"But you should have ask him," we rebuked.

"Well, he aint no prize fighter and he don't look like no bill collector."

"Oh, that's different; let him in."

A minute or two a huge gootter steamed up to the desk, and began: "My name is Eastern Football. I just got back and I'd like to get a little writup."

"What about?"

"About what I'm gonna do—and aint gonna do—this fall," was the reply. "One of the things I aint gonna do is let that Yale crowd make such a joke of me as they did the last two years. Gosh that was fierce. I never was so humiliated in all my career as up in New Haven last year. Wasn't it terrible?"

"It was—and a bit more."

Yale Conditions Changed

"Well it aint gonna happen again," said our visitor. "Tad Jones is on the job up there now. He's a good coach. That'll help some, but the greatest help will be that the frat stuff don't go anymore. You know it was something of a rule up there in Yale in 1914 and 1915 that if you didn't belong to a certain secret society you couldn't get on the team, no matter how good a player you were. That's why things went on the blink at Yale. But it aint gonna be so no more."

"Glad to hear it. And now about Harvard."

"Harvard? Well, oh, it will be there or thereabouts, don't you worry. Of course, Brickley, Mahan, King, Hardwick and the rest of that gang that made history up there for a few years have gone. But ol' Perc' Houghton is still on the job. And Perc' y'no, is some coach."

"Princeton?" we asked.

"They've got what can be called the nucleus of a fine team up there," answered our visitor. "I wouldn't be surprised to see those Tigers right up in the championship fight. You know the team wasn't so heavily hit by graduation and that means they've got some crackling players left."

Pitt Prospects Bright

"What do you think of the Pittsburgh outlook?"

"Bright—very bright. Pitt, you know went through the 1915 season without suffering a defeat and lost only one game in 1915 which is quite a record. 'Pop' Warner has some great material left for this year's team. Pitt is going to put its one

"Sure! I'll have him drop around next week. Bye, Bye."

Brooklyn-New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—New York and Brooklyn broke even on their double header yesterday, the Giants winning the first game 6 to 1, and Brooklyn taking the second 2 to 1. Benton pitched both games for the Giants, giving fourteen hits. The left hander had little trouble winning the first game, as Brooklyn played poorly. In the second Benton was opposed by Marquard and the two had an interesting battle. Brooklyn won in the third inning when Johnson singled, stole second and scored on a double by Stengel.

CERVANTES

Cervantes led a poor man despite the great and immediate success of "Don Quixote" which he published in 1605, when he was 58 years old. He led a wandering life. As a soldier he saw active service at Navarino and Tunis. In 1575 he set out for Spain, but was captured by Barbary pirates and held for ransom for five years. When freed he tried to earn a living with his pen, but was unsuccessful, and in 1587 he was engaged in gathering stories for the armada. His unbusinesslike methods lost him his post, and until his death in 1616 he lived in extreme poverty—New York Sun.

SHORT SPORT

The Dodgers lost a golden opportunity yesterday. They were matched to get away with one game. Benton pitched both games for the Giants. He got away with the first and lost a pitchers' battle with Marquard in the second. The defeat lost the lead for the Robinsons. They are now one point behind the Phillies.

The Red Sox-Tigers fight for the lead was a draw yesterday. The Red Sox had an easy victory over the Athletics. The Tigers won from the Browns because of Ty Cobb's daring base-running in the tenth.

The other hoosery experts—the White Sox—are also sticking close. The Pirates are playing championship ball a little late in the season. They triumphed the Cards two games.

If rain does not interfere with hostilities in Boston and New York today the lead may change again.

White Sox Win From Cleveland

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Chicago defeated Cleveland 4 to 3 after staying off a determined ninth inning rally by the Indians.

Forcing too strenuously, Schalk and Fournier of the White Sox, were expelled by Empire Dineen and Robert Hasbrook, a Muscatine addition to the big league took the latter's place on first, creating a favorable impression. Score:

Contest Is Begun For Semi-Final

HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 7.—The eastern golf players have been rudely set back in the national amateur tournament now being staged here. When the eight surviving players began play today in the contests that will send them to the semi-finals, there were only two representatives of the Metropolitan district.

Bobby Jones of Atlantic has won some more admirers. The 14 year old club wielder again proved his worth after being five down at the sixth hole in his match with F. W. Dyer, he came through and won his match by four up and two to go.

Jones meets Bob Gardner, the champion today. Jones' admirers predict the champion will have no easy time with the youngster, and many believe that the champion will go under.

Today's matches are:
Charles Evans, Edgewater vs. J. C. Andersen, Swanov. Robert A. Gardner, Hinsdale vs. R. T. Jones, Jr., Atlantic. Jess Guilford, Woodland vs. G. W. White, Flushing. C. B. Buxton, Huntington Valley vs. D. C. Corkran, Baltimore.

St. Marys to Be Next Attraction at Murphy Park

St. Marys will be the attraction at Murphy street park next Sunday afternoon. The Independents are looking for one of the most difficult contests of the season when they stack up against this aggregation.

However, the locals with ten straight wins to their credit feel confident of the game. The St. Marys club has been winning with much regularity this season and can be looked to play a stiff game of ball.

The line-up of the visitors will be about the same as used in the game against the Independents last year. About the only new face that will be seen will be on the mound.

St. Marys team played two of the best games seen at the local park last year. Although defeated by Lima both times, it was only by the closest kind of a margin. The management of the St. Marys club stated today that a large number of fans would accompany the team to Lima.

The lineup of the Independent club will be intact. Manager Callahan is of the opinion that it is one of the strongest aggregations of ball-tossers that has ever represented this city.

With Carroll in the box the remainder of the team plays a classy brand of ball. Not only do they play an excellent game on the defense, but show a decided inclination to make runs when they are needed.

Auto Races One Day of Fair

Auto races will be held at Lima Driving park on September 26, while the Allen county fair is in session. Programs and entry cards have already been prepared by the management. All entries must be in by Friday, September 26, at 5 p. m. No entry fee will be charged but 10 per cent will be deducted from the money winners.

The card will consist of three races. The first will be a five-mile affair in which the prize will be $125. The second will go ten miles with a $125 purse. The third and last race of the day will be a 15-mile race with a purse of $200. The money in all three races to be divided 30 and 20.

POWER Of Political Interference IN MUNICIPAL INSTITUTIONS EASY TO DEMONSTRATE.

One of the chief objections to municipal ownership of public utilities is the prevalence of political interference.

If you care to examine the workings of municipal ownership diluted with political influence, displaying the actual result of combining technical sciences and political jobbery, go to Troy.

In the Miami county capital, through which you pass en route to Dayton, there is a municipal electric light and power plant which has had a taste of politics. The management of the institution has been made a campaign issue for unscrupulous candidates. The voters were urged to elect new men on a platform of rate cutting, putting the plant in line for an annual deficit. The aspirants for office displayed an ignorance of science and practical technical matters, but their line appealed to a majority.

Because charges of discrimination had entered into the fight for office, with promises of counter-discrimination as bait for votes, old-time customers began to leave the plant and install power generators of their own. Facing a war which would mean inefficient service, faithful patrons of the institution withdrew. And the superintendent who had worked, unhampered by politics, for fourteen years, to build up a paying plant, found his efforts in vain.

The politicians then decided to make a scapegoat of the superintendent. Frightened by the belief that the expert would be removed, more customers left the plant. Result, losing every year, biggest patrons lost, no longer in a fair way to become a profitable department.

That's the way municipal ownership works. If politics will creep into a public utility in a small city, what can keep it out in a large place like Lima, in a system with many jobs for the friends of the victors?

TRADING IS ACTIVE ON WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Brokers were busy at the opening of the stock exchange today handling orders received overnight, including many on the selling side. This made active trading all through the day, with substantial buying followed by brisk reactions. The majority of the stocks showed good net gains at the end of this period. Baldwin Locomotive continued to reflect accumulation by strong interest, advancing 1 1/2 to 83 1/2. Crucible gained 2 points to 84 1/2, and Colorado Fuel 1 1/2 to 50 1/2. Tobacco products were in good demand, advancing a point to 48 1/2. American Beet Sugar rose two points to 92.

Initial sales of U. S. Steel were recorded as 8,500 shares from 100 1/2 to 100 1/2, against 100 1/2 at the close yesterday.

The Marines continued their skyrocketing movement, common opening 1/2 higher at 49 1/2 and preferred rose to 121 1/2. Reading started 1 1/2 higher at 107 and then sold up to 108 1/2.

At the end of the first 15 minutes Marine preferred had reacted to 119 1/2 and common to 48 1/2. Reading reacted to 108 1/2. Lackawanna Steel advanced a point to 80 1/2, but lost part of the gain. Studebaker started 1/2 lower at 123 1/2 and United Fruit which closed yesterday at 167 opened at 165 1/2.

Trading continued large and active in the late forenoon, with aggressive selling causing substantial declines in many stocks. Marines preferred dropped to 118 1/2 and the common to 47 1/2. Steel common sold around 100 1/2. Kelly Springfield declined from 84 1/2 to 80 1/2 from which it rallied to 82 1/2. There was an improved demand for the railway issues, with Reading the most prominent. Union Pacific gained 1 1/2 to 139 1/2 and moderate gains were made in Erie, New York Central and Lehigh Valley. Bethlehem rose 5 1/2 to 49 1/2.

Mexican petroleum declined from 112 1/2 to 110 1/2, Baldwin from 83 1/2 to 81 1/2 and Industrial Alcohol from 113 1/2 to 112 1/2. California petroleum rose 1/2 to 22 1/2.

TEN CENT HOTEL FOR WOMEN.

A splendid building being erected in Chicago at a cost of $150,000 is to be opened in a few weeks as a hotel for working girls. Lodging in it may be secured as low as 10 cents per night. A cafe with proportionately low prices will be provided and in addition to this, arrangements will be provided by which guests may go into the kitchen and cook food for themselves. The building will accommodate 250 women and each is privileged to utilize any part of the hotel equipment including baths, sewing room, library and laundry free of charge. It is the philanthropy of a Chicago banker.

Stop the First Cold.

A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected. Hackling coughs drain the energy and sap the vitality. For 47 years the happy combinations of soothing antiseptic balsams in Dr. King's New Discovery has healed coughs and relieved congestion. Young and old can testify to the effectiveness of Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs and colds. Buy a bottle today at your Druggist, price 50c.

ST. JOHN'S SCHOOL OPENS WITH 460 PUPILS PRESENT

A high Mass by the Rev. Father Mizer opened the school term at St. John's Parochial School this morning at 8 o'clock. A large number of pupils turned out for the first days work. Last years attendance reached the goal of 400 while this year exceeds the former by 60. In addition to the eight grammar grades, a two year Commercial Course in high school will as usual be maintained.

Ten Sisters of Charity are stationed at the South Side, to educate the children. Nine of the Sisters are teaching in the school while one is reserved for music only. A large number of scholars have already been enrolled for this special study. Any one desiring to take up this science can make arrangements with the Sister who is in charge.

Owing to the new addition being built to the St. Rose school which was begun last January, school will not open until Monday.

OHIO FASTER DIES ON SEVENTIETH DAY

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 7.—Dr. H. G. Huffman, Youngstown's fasting oculist, died at the city hospital this morning, as the result of his inability to resume eating after his most recent protracted fast. This was the seventieth day Huffman had taken no food.

Huffman started his fast June 30, at Camp Phoenix, on Grand river in Ashland county, near Geneva. He intended to go without food fifty days, believing it would rid his system of poisons and help him to combat heart disease with which he had been afflicted. He had fasted for similar periods on two previous occasions with much benefit to his health. At the end of fifty days he tried to break his fast by eating watermelon. The food disagreed with him and made him ill. Then he decided to fast ten days more. At the end of that time he was still unable to eat and so weak that he was removed to Youngstown.

BOOST GIVEN WAGES.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 7.—An increase in the wages of motormen and conductors employed by the Louisville Street Railway company was announced by President T. J. Minery. The wage boost amounts to one cent an hour, making the new scale of pay 21 to 25 cents an hour, instead of 21 to 25 cents, and depending upon the length of service.

NEW BUILDING ON WIGWAM CORNER

Mrs. Fannie Spannagel and F. X. Sieber announced today that they would erect a two-story brick building in the rear of the Wigwam Cigar store on West High street. Architects DeCarlin and Waggoner will draw plans for the structure. Business offices will occupy the main portion of the building.

EXQUISITE BOOTS FOR FALL WEAR

Our stocks are full and running over with beautiful new creations in fall and winter boots, prettier patterns and daintier lasts than it has ever been our pleasure to show before.

The prevailing colors will be harmonizing shades of tan and nut brown, while combinations both of colored kid and buckskin will also be very much in vogue.

You will find all of our new models reflecting the latest tendencies of fashion and we are confident in saying that powhere in the country will you find footwear style tendencies for the coming season more accurately interpreted than here.

Evening Slippers of

Silver and Gold Cloth

Their beauty lies in their simplicity. They are bench made, with finely curved arches, Louis heels and turned soles, and their popularity will continue throughout the winter.

BOOTS FOR HIKING

The college or school girl will be interested in two new boots we have just received—one of pearl moose hide, washable, with low heel, laced and the other with winged vamp, laced and low heel. Both of these boots are 8½ in. in height and to the girl going away, we suggest taking a pair along. Priced at $5.00.

NEW SHOES FOR MEN

Because of the threatened railroad strike, we have been receiving express shipments of men's fall and winter shoes for the last two weeks, until now our stocks are complete, and we take pleasure in inviting your early inspection.

And we advise an early purchase, because of the unique situation in the market this year. Leather is scarce, dyes are hard to obtain, and there is no doubt that prices for shoes will be higher this year than ever before. Because our orders were placed early, we are able to offer you shoes now, at prices which show very little, if any, advance. But were we to re-order these same shoes today, we would have to pay advances of from fifteen to twenty-five percent. We therefore say to the wise gentleman shoe buyer—buy early, anticipate your future needs if possible.

SCHOOL SHOES

Now is the time when you are seriously considering shoes for the children. We believe we are better equipped to give you dependable shoes for all ages and at prices which we know are extremely reasonable.
